It's manny-an manny a year gone by.
From over the wather a hailing.
A sprig of a bye, wid a clear blue sky
I came to this country; a sailing.
My heart bate within wid a rollicking tune,
On my breast was the shamrock adorning.
When I first touched the ground, sure the bands all around
Played St. Patrick's glad day in the morning.

Good luck to the ship that brought me across.
An' here in God's country was landed,
For never a time, without dollar or dime
Have I found myself here empty-handed.
I've a snug little home that shelters us all.
Where no landlord's face is a warning.
An' I hail with delight when day follows night.
St. Patrick's glad day in the morning.

My heart often wanders back to the old sod.
An' the dear ones behind me a leaving -,
But while others above, I should This Land I love
Sure, it's not to go back I'm a grieving.
I love the free air, in this blessed land where.
I can look back on royalty scorning,
An' as the bands play I can welcome the day,
St. Patrick's glad day in the morning.

Lodge Buzz

March is the month that we will welcome in Spring and many of us will be grateful for warmer temperatures and beautiful flowers popping up everywhere. If we catch Spring fever we will not be concerned because it will remind us that new growth is coming soon.

Residents here at the Lodge have fond memories of Easter and getting dressed up with the ladies wearing their favorite Easter bonnets. The children and grandchildren were joyful as they searched for eggs in the house or the back yard. Everybody loved the candy that was found in those colorful Easter baskets.

March is the start of growing season as we plant vegetables and flowers for the Summer harvest. March Madness will be the time to root for your favorite college basketball team. So many good things happen in Spring! Enjoy this poem below and Happy Spring to all!

To The Thawing Wind

by Robert Frost

Come with rain, O loud Southwester!

Bring the singer, bring the nester;

Give the buried flower a dream;

Make the settled snowbank steam;

Find the brown beneath the white;

But whate'er you do tonight,

Bathe my window, make it flow,

Melt it as the ice will go;

Melt the glass and leave the sticks

Like a hermit's crucifix;

Burst into my narrow stall;

Swing the picture on the wall;

Run the rattling pages o'er;

Scatter poems on the floor;

Turn the poet out of door.

A Nurse's Note:

From the Administrator

I am sure you noticed all the activity with the flooring and wiring being done. We are in the home stretch. The flooring should be complete by the time you read the newsletter. The fire panel will be about another week.

We noticed as we were moving residents for the flooring to be put down, that many rooms have extension cords. Extension cords are prohibited in resident rooms by the Fire Marshall.

The new Menu System started this week. We are hoping it will improve resident's satisfaction with their meals. If you have any questions, you can contact Kyle our Dietary Manager at kyle.morgan@lodgecarecenter.com.

We now have the new COVID and RSV vaccine available. Please call or let the nurse know if you would like your loved one to receive it.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call.

From the Director of Nursing

As we prepare to bid farewell to winter's chill, there's an unmistakable sense of anticipation in the air, the vibrant hues of spring are just around the corner! Spring symbolizes a fresh start and rejuvenation. As we prepare to welcome the spring, we also eagerly anticipate the celebration of Easter, a time of joy, hope and renewal. Whether it's through Easter egg hunts, festive meals with loved ones, or the simple pleasure of sharing laughter, Easter provides a perfect opportunity to come together and embrace the spirit of community.

Please join me acknowledging Shaterica in our first team member shout out.

I am delighted to acknowledge Shaterica Bryant, an exceptional nurse on our team. Shaterica consistently demonstrates extraordinary kindness and encouragement, showcasing unwavering dedication to the well-being of residents and supporting her team. Her genuine willingness to go above and beyond, providing compassionate care and extending help to team members, exemplifies teamwork and generosity. Shaterica's positive influence creates an uplifting environment, with her contagious encouragement benefiting both residents and team members. Her commitment extends beyond physical health to encompass emotional well-being, embodying cherished values at the Lodge. Shaterica's selflessness and giving nature inspire us all, defining her as a true team player and contributing to a strong sense of community in our workplace. Let's collectively express gratitude to Shaterica for her tireless efforts and remarkable contributions that make a positive difference every day.

Angelia Sweeney, RN
Director of Nursing

Thought for the Month:

Once I knew only darkness and stillness... my life was without past or future... but a little word from the fingers of another fell into my hand that clutched at emptiness, and my heart leaped to the rapture of living.
